

CONCENTRIC CONSOLE

Glass, metal, and stone meet and meld in this exceptionally beautiful console table. Its modern silhouette is open and airy yet offers substantial presence. At the top you'll find an elegant plane of glass tinted in a warm brown that lets you look through to see the beauty beneath. Visible from above, the bottom shelf is crafted of $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch slab of Carcasta marble. Both glass and stone are outlined in a plated-metal frame finished in a luxurious Lucent Bronze. This console table's stylish base features angular supports that offer a contemporary take on rustic construction while each design element is skillfully balanced to create a singular look that will stand out wherever it's located.
